Subject: Revision of GRFP GRIP Submission Due Date

Dear GRFP Fellow,

In response to COVID- 19, we would like to inform you that NSF is extending the due dates for two funding opportunities .

The due date for submission of a GRFP GRIP application has been revised from 6 May, 2020 to 8 June, 2020. GRIP internship funding provides an allowance of $5,000. The 8 June, 2020 due date is for proposed internships that would begin in the calendar year 2021.

Eligible GRFP Fellows may also be able to participate in INTERN (NSF 18-102). Funding requests can total up to $55,000, including up to $2,500 for materials and supplies to support the Fellow during the internship. The revised FY20 deadline for INTERN is 8 June, 2020. There are special requirements for GRFP Fellows to participate in INTERN. For additional information on GRFP INTERN, please send an email to GRIP@nsf.gov.

Thank you,

The GRFP Team
